Letter To The Editor

The Elba Clipper

Dear Sir:

The special drive to collect funds to build a chapel at Seacrest Hospital is officially over.

I want to thank you for your help in promoting this project. While I am personally disappointed at the poor showing from the west side of Coffee County, three hundred eighty-six dollars ($386.00) to date, I believe many have been made aware of Seacrest Hospital and some of its needs.

Contributions can still be mailed directly to the hospital at Mount Vernon, Alabama.

Donnie Burns, 17-year-old golfer from Elba, won the Harold Deal Invitational Golf Tournament.

Burns fired a three-under par 105 Saturday to claim a narrow one-stroke victory over Johnny Boles in the 9th annual Harold Deal Invitational Golf Tournament.

The Enterprise linkster appeared to have a safe three-stroke lead after a 69 for the opening 18 holes, but had to hold off the fast closing Boles, who came in with a final round 35. Boles, of Opp, started the 36-hole tournament with a final nine four strokes back, but ended only one back.

Cahill will be joined by Tide teammates Chuck Bird, Sam Vullie, and Chick Wade for the affair.

WFL MAKES TD 7 POINTS

The World Football League has announced that they will make a touchdown worth seven points and will replace the extra point with an "actionpoint" play. The new rule is an attempt to put more excitement in professional football.

The new rules provide seven points for a touchdown, and after a score the ball will be placed on an "action line" two and one-half yards from the goal line. The scoring team may try to score the "action point" by running or passing.

The WFL also adopted a new rule making the penalty for offensive holding 10 yards instead of the present 15.

SOUTHERN CAL WINS BASEBALL TITLE

Southern California took advantage of two Miami errors Saturday to defeat the Hurricanes 7-3, and capture their fifth straight NCAA Baseball Championship.

TROOPER BILL PHELPS points to bent spot on Nelson car and spot of white paint left by assailant's car.

Female Motorist Escapes

At about 10:20 p.m. Monday night, Mrs. Terry B. Nelson of Rt. 1, Elba, received the scare of her lifetime and possibly came within minutes of losing her life.

She was driving home with her six year old daughter from a church meeting in Elba when the incident happened. Along a deserted stretch of the Troy Highway, about five miles north of Elba, a car driven by a black male attempted to run her off the road. When this failed, the car dropped back and bumped into her 1970 Chevrolet three or four times. Then he managed to run her car off the highway and he cut in front of Mrs. Nelson's car, jumped out and attempted to drag her from the car. An approaching car scared the assailant off, sparing Mrs. Nelson further troubles.

This car left with the driver promising to return (which he never did) and another motorist, Larry Address of Troy, stopped a few minutes later and sounded the alarm for Mrs. Nelson.

Mrs. Nelson was taken to Elba General Hospital and treated for shock. Her daughter, Tracey Lynn, was taken home by members of her family.

Mrs. Nelson's husband works in the Mobile area and was summoned home, arriving about 4:00 a.m. Tuesday.

Trooper Phelps questioned little Tracey Lynn after gaining her confidence only as an experienced father could do. The young girl said, "Heumped into us four times I think. I didn't see his face, just Mama saw him; and I think he went that way when he left," (pointing north).

LITTLE TRACY LYNN tells Trooper Phelps what happened earlier when her mother were run off road. She is sitting on hood of car as she related the events in a very grown up manner.
